Spring!

It seemed as if it was taking its own sweet time in arriving, but the season of rebirth is finally with us. We have put together some suggestions for jewellery that goes with spring colours.

Vanessa Tugendhaft

For her collection Idylle, the creative Belgian jewellery designer has returned to her original famous pink, which has become like a second skin. It includes necklaces, bracelets, earrings and rings. Pink diamonds and white, yellow and pink gold. La Rose ring. €1,035

Louis Vuitton –Blossom Collection

The Louis Vuitton website gets poetical as spring arrives: "There is a word to describe the moment nature stirs from its winter sleep, the fragile and fleeting moment evoking the irresistible rebirth of beauty, the moment when a flower opens to greet the pale light of spring and herald the fertility of the fruit trees. That word is 'blossom'. And Blossom is now the name of a new Louis Vuitton jewelry collection inspired by the flowers on Monogram canvas."
